

Boston, Sund. Evng,
17 Jan. -

Dear Mrs. Chapman,

Mr. Marsh (connected with the Bee) is now in Boston. His residence is in Leverett Street, opposite head of Causeway Street. - Did you ever discover, among yr. papers, the plan of drawing the photographs wh. you designed to send me? It has never come to my hands. - If you have an opportunity to send to me the Scissors you design for Miss Holley, please do so, as I suppose I ought soon to be forwarding to her some, at least, of the articles she desires. -

I have had no opportunity of talking with C. K. Whipple about the Standard, and, for fear of leading him to say some even more desperate thing against going to N. Y. K., think I shall avoid doing so; but Mr. Garrison says he will have a talk with Whipple, and I think F. Jackson will also. — My own belief is that, in due time, Whipple could be made to see it his duty to go to N. Y., if he could have some one associated with him. I feel that he is not equal to the work alone. He has had no editorial experience. Garrison says he could not do the Standard work, with only his present experience.

There is much talk of your becoming the Editor-in-Chief. It is universally agreed that that w^d. be the true arrangement for the paper.

The Keys of the Bazaar boxes are with Mr. Wallcut.

Very truly, Yours

Saml May Jr.

P.S. I shall probably detain the de la Rue box in a day or two. Having had so long a passage, the paper & other articles will be likely to suffer from dampness. What shall be done with the box?
